

Fraser-Cascade SD78 Acknowledgment of Traditional Territory

Agassiz:

I would like to acknowledge that we are on the traditional ancestral and unceded shared territory of the Cheam, Sts'ailes, Sq'ewlets and Seabird Island people. We thank you for welcoming us to the territory and allowing us to carry out the work we are doing today.

Boston Bar:

I would like to acknowledge that we are on the traditional ancestral and unceded shared territory of the Nlaka'pamux people. We thank you for welcoming us to the territory and allowing us to carry out the work we are doing today.

Harrison:

I would like to acknowledge that we are on the traditional ancestral and unceded shared territory of the Sts'ailes people. We thank you for welcoming us to the territory and allowing us to carry out the work we are doing today.

Hope:

I would like to acknowledge that we are on the traditional ancestral and unceded shared territory of the Chawathil people of the Tiyt Tribe. The Tiyt Tribes of the Stó:lō territory extend along the boundaries down both sides of the Fraser River from Yale to Seabird. We thank you for welcoming us to the territory and allowing us to carry out the work we are doing today.
